American Legion in Regular Meeting

Plans for Coming Play are Talked Over

The monthly meeting of the Harold D. Speakman Post, American Legion, held last Monday night, was one of the most interesting and enthusiastic the post has ever had. It was well attended, several of the members present having been active when the post was first organized.

The chief topic discussed was "Welfare Work Among the Disabled Veterans in the Various Hospitals." A letter from one of the boys at Oteen, North Carolina, was read, in which appreciation was expressed for the help given this boy by the post and the auxiliary.

The fact that some of these boys have been unable to secure compensation from the Government makes them entirely dependent on outside help for many needs, such as stamps, money for hair-cuts, etc. When this was properly brought to the attention of the post they immediately voted 25 per cent. of all future revenue from entertainments, shows, etc., to be used in helping our disabled veterans. This action on the part of the legion should receive the hearty endorsement of everyone, as all are anxious to do what they can to alleviate the suffering and hardships of the unfortunate ex-service men, whose means of livelihood have been robbed by the ravages of war.

Several members of the post are to visit the Grays Ferry Veterans' Hospital, No. 49, Saturday afternoon, leaving the office of the Narberth Coal and Building Material Company at 2.00 P. M. All members are invited to join us in this visit to ascertain what form of help is most needed at this hospital.

The committee in charge of the "Legion Follies of 1925" made a very good report. Rehearsals for this show start next Tuesday night at 8.00 P. M. in Elm Hall, and will be held every Tuesday and Friday at the same hour and place. The show will be put on two nights, April 24 and 25, and from advance notices, will be the best show ever staged in Narberth.

Every member of the legion owes his support to the show as 25 per cent. of the proceeds go to welfare work among ex-service men. Everybody out to the rehearsals Tuesday and Friday nights, Elm Hall, 8.00 P. M. sharp.

Concert Delights Audience.

Ann Luckey, soprano, and Ruth McLinn, pianist, of New York; Amory St. Amory Hunt, violinist, of London, England, and Harry J. Conwell, baritone, of Philadelphia, combined to make the success of this recent concert for the benefit of the Holy Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church of Narberth.

Miss McLinn and Miss Luckey revived the interest aroused in Narberth last season. Miss Luckey's voice showed great beauty and dramatic quality and she gave a real artistic interpretation of the Dvorak gypsy songs and songs of Alice Barnett, Gambogi, Schindler and Robert Braine.

Miss McLinn gave a masterly rendition of a Chopin group, waltz, A flat major, prelude, G major and Polonaise A major. Also The Two Larks, Leschetizky and Dause, Negre, Cyril Scott. She displayed her usual splendid technique. An interesting feature of the evening was the playing by Mrs. Hunt of Romance, composed by her brother, Archie St. Amory, and also her excellent interpretation of Melody of Gluck-Kreisler and Moto Perpetuum, by Ries.

Mr. Conwell gave a pleasing program of songs. These included Lighterman Tom, by Squire; Banjo Song, by Homer; Invictus, by Huhn; O Mistress Mine, by Quilter and Lolita, by Burzi Peccia. Mr. Conwell's rich baritone voice made a very great appeal to the audience and his selections were greeted with much applause.

Only the highest praise for the concert was heard from everyone, who expressed their appreciation to these artists for bringing such an unusual musical treat to Narberth.

Scout Committee Asks for Wider Support

Still Short of Funds Needed to Carry On Year's Work

Possibly the good people of this town are not interested in the Boy Scouts. It's pretty near two weeks since the requests for subscriptions were sent through the mails and at this writing the amount set by the Troop Committee as necessary for the continuation of the troop activities during the current year is far from realized. In fact but a little more than half of the $450 asked for has been subscribed.

The names of the contributors to the fund to date, in the order in which their contributions have been received, follow:

A. J. Malochleb, John Stewart, C. Alfred Peeney, James C. Keenan, Adelizzi Brothers, C. Franklin Brisbin, D. A. Newhall, William H. Coleman, Peter Stam, Jr., H. T. McDuffee, Robert E. Greene, John Burt, Lewis Ward Easby, W. J. Bailey, John S. Ketcham, W. B. Lemly, William B. Goodall, Kern W. McHose, Paul M. Field, Laura L. McCoy, F. Leaning Smith, Samuel S. White, Mrs. Mary J. James, Edward G. Smidheiser, L. W. Richardson, Jr., Ralph S. Dunne, E. M. Posey, Elsie H. Kremer, John Leitch, W. H. Lewis, Ernest A. Bailey, H. I. McConnell, R. O. Sperry, Victor D. Abel, George H. Schultz, George Gilpin, Jr., Alfred Y. Reinking, David Quick, Jr., Gerhard Beckman, F. R. Crowell, Rev. M. E. McLinn, Mrs. Arthur N. Edrop, W. S. Dohard, Harry G. Parker, A. P. Redifer, R. A. Cabrey, Henry Flier, W. M. Wentz, Horton Williamson, J. C. Van Kirk, J. J. Cabrey.

Morris I. Templeman, P. A. Wales, Adolph Vogel, J. Quarll Mackey, W. Elmer Titus, Kate R. Runyon, John F. Bailey, Jr., John E. Bailey, Jr., William R. Dawson, H. I. Parks, Edward S. Haws, John J. Fittipaldi, Verl Pugh, H. V. Whitney, Aleck Ewald, Nelson C. Rowley, F. A. Lanahan, J. Wallace Goodwin, Samuel P. Bowman, A. W. Burns.

Not for a moment is it thought that there is really a lack of interest on the part of the residents of this borough in the future of the troop. It would help the committee a lot, however, to see a little more tangible evidence of that interest. People are prone to let a matter of this sort slide, putting it off from day to day, without realizing its importance and urgency of it.

Every contribution no matter how small will help the total. The Troop Committee is anxious to have as many names on the list of subscribers as possible. Nothing could be finer than to see the name of every resident of Narberth listed; or at least a representative of each household. It is not necessary to make your subscription a large one, though naturally no large checks will be turned down. A dollar is as welcome as 10 dollars, and though all names will be published, the amount of each subscription will be treated confidentially. It's the spirit of the gift that counts most and the widow's mite will be just as welcome as a possible offer from one of Narberth's nabobs who might offer to build and equip a brand new Scout house, which would comfortably accommodate the fast growing troop.

And speaking of the troop, we feel that we can not encroach too much on the editor's space this week, to acquaint you with some more facts regarding the progress of the troop and the individual members, other than to say that new members are coming in fast and old ones continuing to advance. At a later date we shall tell you more of this. The most important matter at the present time is the raising of the fund necessary to maintain the troop in its present inadequate quarters.

Do not overlook the fact that nearly 70 boys are meeting every Monday night in quarters suitable

FATHERS' ASSOCIATION

Two Interesting Speakers Please Meeting.

Lt. Commander F. T. Van Auker, U. S. N., and Lou Young, football coach of Penn, addressed the members of the Fathers' Association at last Wednesday's meeting.

Commander Van Auker's talk was inspirational, dealing with the boys, their importance in the community and the responsibilities of their fathers in their development.

Mr. Young took as his topic, discussing the merits of the game and giving his hearers an insight into the working of Penn's wonderful machine.

The combination of speakers made a decided hit and the daddies voted it a big success.

President Henry Frye conducted the meeting, adding a few pertinent remarks.

Plans are already under way for the next meeting. It will be held at some place to be decided on later, where a larger audience can be accommodated.

League to Meet.

The regular meeting of the Narberth League of Women Voters will be held next Monday in the Y. M. C. A. at 2.30 P. M.

Mrs. Otto V. Kruse will report on the Inauguration, which she attended. A report on the recent Legislative Tea will be made by Mrs. Frederick Torrey.

Mrs. C. P. Fowler, chairman of the local league will present a review of current important matters in State legislation, discussing principally proposed measures which are of interest to the women.

In addition to this program, Legislative delegates will be chosen.

Show Room to Open.

The store on Narberth avenue, south of Haverford will be opened in a few weeks by Ray Weiss as a display room for Maxwell and Chrysler cars.

The new store adjoins the present one occupied by Mr. Weiss as an accessory store. The success of Narberth's only auto salesroom has been very marked, and the enlarged space is found necessary.

PRESBYTERIANS WIN CUP

Are Champions in Interchurch Bowling League.

The Presbyterian senior team of the Inter-Church Bowling League, clinched the championship on Friday evening, February 27, when they defeated the Baptist team in the play off games to determine the winner of the second half of the season. They won the first half and tied with the Baptists for leadership in the second, and by defeating the Baptists in the play off games are entitled to the cup which is given to the winning team.

Friday evening's games were exciting from start to finish. The Baptists nosed out the Presbyterians in the tenth frame of the first game. The Presbyterians won the second by a good margin, but the third was doubtful until the last man had bowled.

W. D. Smedley had the highest score for a single game, with 200 points to his credit and H. T. Smedley rolled 510 for the highest total score. The Presbyterians, however, made the best team score with 2259 points.

A meeting of representatives from the various teams playing in the league will be held shortly when a permanent organization will be effected and plans outlined for next season. Increased interest has been shown in the league since the splendid new alleys in the Baptist Church have been available.

New Organization Formed in Narberth

"Live Wires" to Specialize in Sports

A new organization has appeared on Narberth's horizon. The name seems to indicate its character for the members call themselves the "Live Wires." If their enthusiasm is an index it sounds good. One of the members was interviewed this week.

"What do you know about a good time?" he said, "some folks have one idea of a good time and other folks have another. But if you want to have a real lively time join the 'Live Wires'."

"We want all fellows from the ages 16 to 20. We have 17 members to date; their names are: Ben Whitman, friend and teacher; William R. Parker, Jr., president; Edward Gillifillan, vice president; Edward Merkel, secretary and treasurer; William W. Wanamaker, J. Herbert Burrell, Alfred J. Odiorne, Robert M. Patten, Robert Gillifillan, Robert Walsh, C. Charles Herron, 3d, Willard Bowman, Samuel Stalker, Thomas Merkle, Douglas Odiorne, Atherton B. Lane and Donald Brown.

"We have a basketball team and are organizing a baseball team. "A special privilege of swimming in the Central Y. M. C. A. pool has just been received, making it possible to have a swimming team.

"Atherton B. Lane, sports manager, 227 Iona avenue, Narberth, is ready to arrange dates for the three teams.

"Our meetings are held the third Thursday of every month. For further particulars, as to where and what time, see one of the members."

St. Patrick's Dance.

Friday, March 13, is the date and Elm Hall the place for the monthly dance of the Narberth Tennis Association. Not many more of these pleasant affairs remain to be held so it behooves all those who have been promising themselves the pleasure of attending one of these popular dances to get busy.

Right here we might say that this season series of dances have been the most successful in the history of the club. The attendance has been more than good and the music and arrangements all that could be desired. The popularity of Mike Fisch and his wonderful orchestra has increased with every dance and the committee in charge is to be congratulated on so wise a selection. If you haven't your tickets phone Jack Wine at once.

NARBERTH LEADING STATION

Outside of the city limits of Philadelphia, ticket sales along the Main Line during the month of January set a new record both in the number of tickets sold and the amount of revenue collected.

Narberth heads the list with a total of 16,352 railroad tickets and 918 Pullman tickets to its credit. Ardmore ranks second with 13,918 railroad tickets; Bryn Mawr third with 11,817, and Wayne fourth with 10,912 tickets.

The previous high-water mark for railroad ticket sales at Narberth was last October, when Jerry C. Casey and his assistants passed out 15,560 tickets.

There has been quite a bit of controversy among the members of the Athletic Association lately. Many want baseball for the spring sport and some want track.

Crete Caves Subject at Woman's Club

Current Legislation Also on List of Topics

After the disposal of the regular business of the Community Club meeting on March 3, the president appointed the nominating committee for officers of the club for the coming year. Mrs. H. P. Moore, Mrs. J. F. Donnelly and Mrs. Wales were appointed.

Votes for a State flower were taken and the wild carrot received the most votes. The attendance, however, was unusually small and not much enthusiasm was shown.

Eight House bills were read and a vote was taken to accept or reject them. The women were in favor of backing all but the first bill which was to excuse from jury duty all women over 60 or those with young children.

The bills favored were as follows:

Appropriation to enlarge "Laurerton," the home for feeble-minded women, to accommodate 1000 more patients.

Law enforcement bill revising the distribution of liquor.

Appropriation for the Munsey Home.

Appropriation for Mothers' Assistance Fund.

Bill to prohibit State aid for agricultural exhibits barring immoral shows or gambling.

Appropriations for public libraries.

Bill to extend jurisdiction of children to mothers as well as to fathers in cases of divorce.

An invitation for March 10 was extended to club members by the Philomusian Club.

Owing to the non-appearance of the musician who was to have played the program lacked a musical number.

The speaker of the day was Mrs. John Dohan, an archaeologist. She related her experiences in cave digging on the Island of Crete, telling of the mountain climbing on horseback, camping on the mountain top in a three-day gale, digging in the oozy clay in the caves by oil-lamp-light, sliding into cold pools of water unexpectedly and fighting off the swarms of hungry fleas and mosquitoes. The reward for all the work and patience was the discovery of pieces of pottery and bronze figures several thousands of years old. Perfect specimens had to be left in the country where they were found, but Mrs. Dohan had several fragments of vases and bowls that gave a good idea of the art of those old days.

The club presented a spring-like air with pussy willows and forsythia decorations. Mrs. Joyce and her aides served tea during the social hour.

"Karnival" Committees Formed.

The following chairmen have been secured to start the ball rolling for the spring "karnival," April 24 and 25, at the Community Club: Soliciting and Donating—Mrs. M. A. Alexander. Decoration, Mrs. C. ## ARE WE ONE-HUNDRED PER CENT?

At the first call of the fire siren, at whatever the hour or weather, always on hand are the faithful volunteers who have pledged their services to the protection of Narberth property.

It has been demonstrated time and again valuable such services are to this community. It has been a source of comment even from other communities that the Narberth Fire Company is always among the first to answer a call, and the resourcefulness and courage of its members have incited many complimentary remarks. All of which is very comforting to know, and it causes us a thrill of pride each time we hear of the exploits and splendid equipment of our "Volunteers."

But what of the return we make to the organization that above all others, should command the support and allegiance of every Narberth household? They ask but little,—that every family inscribe itself as paying members of their company, and this should be looked upon as an honor, rather than duty by those not able to become active members of so important a civic body.

The Narberth Coal and Building Material Company has devoted a window this week to showing an interesting display of some of the relics of the Narberth Fire Company. The original charter and some old photographs tell the story of how many years the Narberth Company has "stood guard," and each year growing.

Consider these things, and ask yourselves whether $3 a year is much to give for a small share in increasing the equipment of the fire company, and a large share in increasing the faith in the fire company's fighters that Narberth is behind them. Send your name and $3 to Chief Charles Noel, or if more convenient, stop at the Narberth Coal office this week and secure a membership blank.

A TRADE CENTER

The growth of the business section of Narberth from a ramshackle row of old-fashioned stores to its present size has been a wonderful thing to watch. But, competent observers tell us, it is nothing to what we may expect.

"Our Town" may cry out the slogan to "Buy in Narberth" every week in the year, but it will mean nothing unless the business men give to their patrons a real reason to do their purchasing at home.

Only three factors are significant: quality, price, completeness. In the first two, it is easily possible for our local tradesmen to qualify; the last depends to some extent on the growth of the town.

But it is now possible to buy nearly everything needed without leaving the Borough, and as the new stores are occupied, this will be even more true. Convenience is rapidly being added to the other factors building up our business district.

The growth in the advertising columns of "Our Town" is an example of the awakening of the merchants to the opportunities of educating the folks of the territory to the unusually well-kept stores we can boast. Recently, two of the oldest and best-known tradesmen in the Borough started an extended advertising campaign in these columns. They both are presenting concrete offers, and their weekly presentations may well be studied, together with the messages of the growing list of other advertisers. It is hoped that "Our Town" will shortly be a directory of the activities of our business men as it is a directory of the town's organizations and individuals.

With a history of over ten years of civic work, and with a circulation reaching nearly every family, "Our Town" is well equipped to do its part in building Narberth, commercially and civically. The business men who place their name on an advertisement in this paper are by that act declaring their participation in community thought.

Read well the list of advertisers in each issue. Truly it is a symposium of modern merchants, and withal a group remarkable in completeness of scope, fairness of price and desire to serve our thriving community.

THE HILLS

Wouldst surcease from worry and grief and care,
For a little while thy soul at rest and free,
To walk the fair haven of thy dreams,
then dare
Cast off the bonds of men, to the hills we'll flee.

Hast thou desire alone with God com-
And wisdom hear, as from His lips will fail
Living words that'll set thy heart atune, mune
Then climb the upward paths to the mountains tall.

Did not Christ, as weary He bore the guilt of man,
Seek the solitude the hills alone can give,
Gaining fortitude for the death, 't would lift the ban,
From the souls of men, that they might truly live.

E'en then thy soul, as upward thy footsteps rise,
Shall know the joy of solitude, the message of the hills;
Thou'll then know the fullness of life and realize
The ways of God are upward, away from towns and mills.

Through new eyes shall the visions of rock, and tree, and brook,
See the message that God will give
to thee,
Symbols of strength and life, o'en the book,
Whose running pages keep the tale of humanity.

The everlasting hills, to the highest tops I'll go,
And girt with courage anew, the victorious of life are mine;
My soul cleansed of envy, of self and woe,
Shall know to the utmost, the things that are divine.

How to Judge Dogs.

The results of the dog show indicate a lamentable divergence between the experts' idea of a good dog and the average owners' idea. At the dog show the judges take into consideration such things as head, neck, eyes, shoulders, fore legs, hindquarters, tail, frame, weight, color, gait, etc. Are these what the owner cares about? They are not. The main points about a dog in the average American home are as follows:

The way he waggles his tail when offered a lump of candy.
The cute way he folds his paw over his nose when asleep.

His manner of begging for food from the table.

The way he comes from behind and licks your hand.

His intelligence, as indicated (a) by offering his right fore paw to strangers, (b) by pretending to be asleep on command, (c) by bringing father his slippers.

His funny, little, cold nose.—New York World.

MARK TWAIN ABED

It is recorded that Francis I of France inaugurated the custom of lying abed late. He and his successor, Henry II, set the style in France of holding receptions in their bedrooms while they lay comfortably at their ease attired in brocaded gowns, and covered with the best examples of Renaissance fabrics. The Louises developed the custom until it became an art, and with their early receptions in bed, the petit levees and grand levees added a comprehensive word to our speech.

Mark Twain, a nineteenth century and twentieth century monarch in the realm of literature, did the same thing. In his four-poster he would lie in lazy luxury, receiving his intimates, smoking, talking, dictating, writing, dreaming—and sleeping when the Sandman caught him in his rounds.

It was while the humorist was living at 21 Fifth avenue, New York, that this semblance to Bourbon luxury and regal splendor was most striking. There Mr. Clemens was besieged by people in every walk of life, all anxious and persistent in their efforts to meet him.

In biographies of Mark Twain frequent references are made to this bed, which was so closely associated with the great humorist, "I am always in bed," Mr. Clemens wrote to more than one person who sought an interview with him.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Fowler and daughter Margaret, spent the last week visiting friends on Long Island.

Marjorie Edrop has asked the editor to thank all her good friends in school and Sunday school and the Girl Scouts for their letters and flowers. She expects to be back to school in a week.

The Ja-Nar Radiator Cover

Makes a beautiful piece of furniture out of an unsightly radiator

NOTHING mars the appearance of a room more than a bare radiator. It doesn't fit in with any scheme of decoration. It is a jarring note in an otherwise harmonious surrounding.

Why tolerate it any longer when you can cover it with a Ja-Nar finished in mahogany, walnut, or other desired finish to match any scheme of decoration?

No home owner, having spent many hours of thoughtful care in planning a home costing twenty thousand dollars or more, but will be interested in the Ja-Nar as the finishing touch that will forever free him from stained or streaked decorations and discolored walls.

Perfectly insulated, so that you can place books, vases, flowers, etc., on it—made of finest furniture steel to cover either high or low radiators.

The Ja-Nar Radiator Cover will also automatically control the temperature of the room if you so desire. Why not arrange now to have one or more of your rooms Ja-Nar equipped? You can view them at our office.

Ask the Ja-Nar man to come and see you

He will explain just how the Ja-Nar Radiator Cover works and how much it costs to cover your ugly radiators and protect walls and decorations. Use the coupon.

STATE 'PHONE BOOKS NOW OVER 1,200,000

Main Line, Listing Some Philadelphia Suburbs, Has 20,000 Names.

With an edition of 1,238,390 copies every issue, Pennsylvania telephone directories are becoming the universal source of information in this Commonwealth, according to a study made by the Pennsylvania Public Service Information Committee.

The number of copies of each issue in the principal cities of Pennsylvania follows: Philadelphia, 410,000; Pittsburgh, 245,600; Harrisburg, 38,600; Scranton, 33,000; Wilkes-Barre, 34,000; Reading, 41,500; Lancaster, 18,000; Williamsport, 19,000; Chester, 25,800; and Norristown, 19,800. The Main Line book, which lists subscribers in some of the Philadelphia suburbs, has an edition of 20,000 copies.

Many business offices are using the telephone directory as the sole means of checking up addresses. The classified business directories, which are part of most of the books, have also proved useful in finding the names of firms whose exact title has been forgotten.

So great has been the increase in the number of telephone subscribers in Pennsylvania during the last few years that virtually every business house may be found in its lists and by far the greater percentage of residences as well.

The advertising columns form a directory of progressive merchants. Refer to them often.

VARE-GRUNDY MAY SPLIT OVER WATSON

Bucks-Montgomery Man Figures in Developing Row, It Is Said.

Representative Watson, of the Bucks-Montgomery congressional district, has become the central figure in a feud that may bring about strained relations between Congressman Vare and Joseph R. Grundy, president of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers' Association. The scrap has developed over Watson's support of Representative Longworth, of Ohio, for speaker of the next house, in face of the fact that Vare, who is reaching out for leadership in Pennsylvania, threw the weight of his influence to Representative Martin Madden, of Illinois.

Grundy is understood to have informed Vare that it is impossible to take Watson away from Longworth.

This side issue to the Longworth-Madden battle may form the beginning of the end of the Vare-Grundy alliance, a curious combination that grew out of the contest for speaker of the State House, when Vare and Grundy got together and, with the aid of Allegheny leaders, succeeded first in bowling over the candidate of State Chairman Baker, and second in routing the selection of Governor Pinchot.

Did you lose something? An ad in these columns will tell hundreds of readers about it.

EPISCOPAL ACADEMY NEWS

Episcopal Surprises Lower Merion 28-24, by Walter L. Tillman.

Episcopal scored one of the biggest upsets of the scholastic season when they triumphed over Lower Merion High, 28 to 24 in the Academy gymnasium. The victory was gained by a great second half rally after the Ardmoreites had led by a large margin at half-time. At the end of the first 20 minutes Lower Merion led by a 20-13 score. Their superiority was even more evident in floor work, where their passing bewildered the home quintet.

But in the final stanza matters were reversed. The Churchmen quintet slowly pulled up on the visitors. Field goals by Andrews and Johnson made the score 20-17. Here Lower Merion temporarily braced with a twin-pointer, but another streak of scoring by the Churchmen brought the figures to 23-22. There remained about 10 minutes of play and in this time Episcopal was never headed. Both teams threw caution to the winds and attempted long flings from around mid-court. Few landed, as the Overbrook court is too spacious for these shots. With three minutes to go Andrews scored the last double-decker of the fray, and the score of 28-24 remained to the finish.

The game was a real surprise to the supporters of both sides, as Lower Merion has had a prosperous year, while the showing of the Episcopal quintet has been erratic.

Captain Andrews, Leser and Johnson played exceptionally well for the winners, while for Lower Merion, Reinhold and Bevan stared.

On Friday Episcopal was forced to enter their Interacademic League game with Germantown Academy, without Captain Jimmy Andrews, the loss of whose mother has necessitated his absence from school.

Whenever Andrews is out the Churchmen's play suffers. During the initial period the Germantown boys matched points with Episcopal and the half ended in a 12-12 tie.

In the second half the visitors cracked and the Churchmen easily won 23 to 15, scoring 11 points in the 20 minutes to G. A.'s three Johnson and McMullen featured for the winners.

The Episcopal Reserves easily downed the Germantown Reserves, 20 to 10, in a preliminary game.

PRESS ON!

BY MABEL REED WILSON

There's no such word as fail, dear lad, There's no such word as fail. What though your bark is battered, worn, Your soul is sick, this stormy morn, There'll come a fairer day.

A day when God's bright sun will shine On all His places for thee. Oh! doubt him not, my lad, my lad, Be loyal, true in all you say, In all you think, In all you do. He'll steer thy bark through stormy sea. He'll bring thee safe again to me. My brave, my noble lad.

There's many a shipwrecked life, my lad, On life's stormy rock-bound shore. These souls lacked Faith and Hope and Trust, They drifted with the tide. Be up and doing, onward still, With faith in God to do His will And in His love abide.

Trimming of trees along public highways without first notifying the owners of the land on which the trees stand would be unlawful under a bill introduced in the Senate last week by Senator Woodward, of Philadelphia.

Junior High Plans for Parents' Night

Will Give Pageant of Early America

Rehearsals are well under way for the first annual parents' night, to be held in the Junior High School auditorium at Ardmore on Friday evening, March 13, at 8 o'clock, when the students of the school will have their parents and friends as guests and will present "The Coming of the Mayflower." This is the first attempt to present a pageant of this kind, and the committee and students are sparing no pains to make their initial effort in every way a success.

The program is presented without charge, and reserved tickets to the capacity of the auditorium may be obtained through the principal, members of the school board, or through the superintendent. Sixty students of the school will present the pictures of the pageant, and, in addition, an exhibition of manual and domestic art work will be displayed in the building after the performance. The full list of characters will be announced later.

Principal E. H. Snow is in charge of arrangements. The pageant is a prologue and five episodes.

These are as follows: Prologue, the Spirit of the Post explains the progress of the story, and music introduces the first scene.

Episode 1: The scene is laid in an open place near the edge of a forest. The allegorical Spirit of the Wilderness and her Indian sons are shown in full possession of the land. A few moments later the band of newly-landed Pilgrims arrives singing and, led by Governor Carver, offers a service of gratitude for safe landing after the long voyage. The Guardian Spirit of the Pilgrim is greeted by the Spirit of the Wilderness.

Episode 2: A representation of the trials and perils of the Pilgrims' first winter of exile. The bitter cold of a northern winter is on the land; savages lurk near, and wolves howl in the distance. Only a few cabins are ready for occupancy. Worst of all, a pestilence is upon the little colony. In a rough cabin, the common house of the Pilgrims, lie dozens of sufferers. The desolation of the settlers is well shown.

A period of a few months elapses.

Episode 3: Spring has come. The Mayflower is about to sail back to England. Indians are threatening the colony. The temptation to many to return home to England is resisted by Alden in the name of all the Pilgrims. The first town meeting is held and led by Captain Miles Standish; the Pilgrims make the first treaty of peace with the Indians that lasted unbroken for more than 50 years.

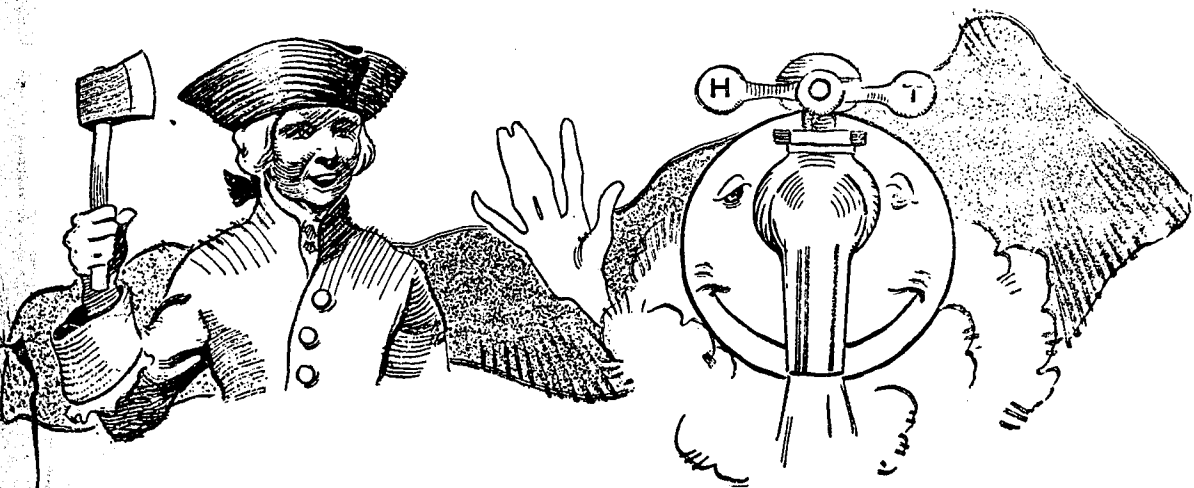

Episode 4: Celebrates the first Thanksgiving day in America. In the midst of the celebration an Indian rushes in with the tidings that a strange ship is coming "like a bird in the wind." Alarmed, the Pilgrims strain their eyes for a sight of the vessel. Suddenly a cry goes up: "It is the flag of England!" Laughing and sobbing with joy the Pilgrims hurry away to meet their friends. When they have gone the Guardian Spirit enters and places her hand upon the Bible. "Out of the holy faith and steadfast courage of these lives the Spirit of America was born."

Episode 5: Shows the Guardian Spirit greeting, with friendly remark and wholesome advice, representatives of all the European countries who are annually coming to our Eastern shores to find new homes in America. The episode closes with a tableau and the audience joining in the singing of the Pilgrim anniversary hymn.

MANY AT TEA

The tea given by the League of Women Voters last week, to meet the State legislators of Montgomery county, was well attended. Miss Ely, chairman of the Montgomery County League; Mrs. Herman L. Schwartz, of Wynnewood; Mrs. C. P. Fowler, of Narberth, and Mrs. Harry Kohn, of Merion, were among those who received the guests.

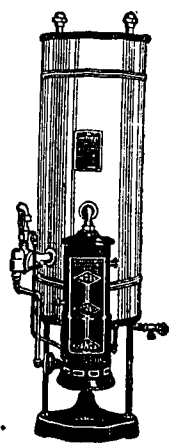

The women were given opportunity to hear each of the legislators express his opinion upon the matters of legislation in which he was particularly interested, and these talks were very much appreciated. Altogether, the afternoon was a great success.

MONEY AND GOODS

Recent Contributions to the Library Reveal Active Interest and Support.

Opportunity has been lacking previously to acknowledge in this column the important gifts of money and reading matter which came to the library principally as a result of the Christmas tree. The cash contributions, running all the way from the few pennies of interested children to single gifts of $25 each, totalled $121.27. To this sum may properly be added $25, which was paid to the library by a local corporation for whom members of the staff had indexed some literature. In addition there was a large, valuable and interesting list of books, magazines and services.

The members of the library staff are of course greatly aided in their work by these contributions, but perhaps the most valuable aid of all is the stimulating knowledge that the response from the community was so widespread, voluntary and generous. This was the first time that the library had publicly asked for contributions and even in this instance there was no solicitation for them. Aside from the Christmas tree in the library and a few brief notices in this column there was no effort to procure gifts. The complete list of contributions follows:

FEVER UNDER CONTROL

But Two Cases Reported this Week.
One of Diphtheria.

Scarlet fever and diphtheria, which have been prevalent in the township the past month, seem to be under the control of health authorities. According to the weekly report of Health Officer Marvin E. Reynolds, of the Board of Health, there are only two new cases of scarlet fever and none of diphtheria.

German measles, which have appeared in consistent manner in several parts of the township, is still giving trouble, five cases being reported for the Bala-Cynwyd district this week.

There are 17 new cases reported for all Lower Merion. Seven of these are German measles, five are whooping cough. Gladwyne district has a free bill of health, no cases at all being found there this week.

L. M. LETTERMEN CUT BY NEW 15-GAME EDICT

Heavy Schedule Blamed for Breaking of Team's Morale.

The probable number of basketball letterman at Lower Merion High will cut down to seven men instead of eight as at first anticipated. A new ruling announced by Coach Greigson and Principal C. B. Pennypacker this week is responsible.

The ruling requires that players to get their insignias must have taken part in 15 games instead of the customary ten. This will make the probable lettermen the following: Captain Gilfillan, Paul Scull, Ronald Ruddick, Dick Reinhold, Dave Bevan and Morris.

Faulk, who was forced to quit the game by doctor's orders two weeks ago because of heart trouble will miss his letters by one game under the new edict. He will however, be awarded honorary letters.

Faulk still seems the likely selection for captain for next year. The election will possibly take place within a week.

The basketballers ended their season in defeat last Saturday. They were beaten by Bordentown Academy in a game in the city by a 43-28 score.

Absence from the line-up of Captain Gilfillan and Faulk, along with a breaking of the team's morale, which is attributed by Coach Greigson to a too lengthy schedule, is blamed for the series of defeats which the team suffered the last part of the season. It is probable that a lighter schedule will be made for next year.

OLDEST MAIN LINE TROOP IS HONORED

Unit Organized by Dr. B. K. Wilbur, is Given Flags.

National troop and patrol flags were presented to Bryn Mawr Troop, No. 1, Boy Scouts, by Mr. Van Horn Ely, in connection with the Union Services of the Main Line Federation of Churches in the Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church, Sunday evening. This troop is one of the oldest troops in the counties, having had an uninterrupted and successful existence for more than 12 years. During the greater part of this time it has been the champion troop of Delaware and Montgomery counties, winning this championship in annual contests in scout-craft, first-aid, fire-making and similar scout activities with all the other troops of the counties.

Dr. Mutch, the pastor of the church, in introducing Mr. Ely, who gave the flags to the troop, briefly outlined the history of the organization, stating that the troop was organized by Dr. B. K. Wilbur, president of the Township Board of Health, in June, 1912, about three years after scouting was begun in the U. S.

COLLEGE AND PULPIT

Furnish Speakers for Hi-Y Club

Bryn Mawr College and the pulpit of Kansas City supplied the speakers for the meeting of the Hi-Y Club held in the Ardmore Y. M. C. A. last Thursday evening. Professor Owens, head of the department of education at Bryn Mawr, told of the entrance requirements of various colleges and the desirability of a college education. His talk was humorous as well as interesting.

Rev. I. N. Marcot, Presbyterian pastor from Kansas City, spoke of "The Greatest Sport in the World—Mountain Climbing." He told of the fascination which this sport held for him and narrated some of his adventures in climbing Mt. Ranier and Mt. Jefferson. Making as the moral of his talk "the person who works the hardest gets the most out of life," Mr. Marcot declared that the trees at the bottoms of the mountains he climbed were larger than those on the top but those in the higher altitudes were of finer texture.

Both speakers were secured through Mr. Edwin D. Peake, of West Philadelphia, who is senior adviser to the club.

Take Only the Doctor's Advice

It is a good thing to remember that all persons are not affected in the same way by medicines of one kind or another.

For that reason it is very unwise to follow the advice of some unqualified person who claims to have been helped by this or that preparation.

The MISUSE of medicines by people who attempt self-treatment is responsible for a great deal of sickness.

Whenever you feel that you are sick enough to take medicine—you are ill enough to see the doctor.

Your physician will prescribe the proper kind of medicine for you or he will advise such other treatment as may be advisable.

See your doctor first. Then, if he finds that you need medicine, let us fill his prescription.

YOU MISSED IT—

If you did not attend the "musical evening" at the Methodist Church last Friday evening! Ask anyone who was there—

They will tell you that the evening was well spent and how their troubles and cares were chased away by that gathering of merry entertainers.

First, let us mention our friend, the Hon. Fletcher Stites, who gave us a most delightful monologue. (Ask someone who was there to tell you about Mrs. Crummic.) We are never disappointed when the Senator is on the program.

Then we heard some delightful solos from "out-of-town artists, including, Mr. Hitner, tenor, and Mr. Harshaw, baritone. The appreciative audience showed their approval by the number of encores that were necessary.

Next came our friend Mr. Ronald Paige, with his "bag o' tricks," which tickled and puzzled us all. Narberth certainly boasts some talent—let me tell you.

And last, but not least, our sense of humor was stirred to the depths by the musical comedy, "Cynthia's Strategy," coached by Mrs. E. V. Frye. The members of the cast were from the choir of the Methodist Church. The sweet, demure (?) little heroine was portrayed by Miss Ruth Prescott; Mr. John Thiry took the part of her lover, and what he didn't endure for her sake—! Mr. Stanley and Miss McFalls played the mother and father.

Not only was there comedy in this little sketch but the singing must be commended. It was excellent. In fact, 'twas heard said, (but don't tell the actors—they have to wear those new Easter bonnets) that the singing was even better than a certain musical comedy now playing in Philadelphia!

Did you miss it?
We'll say you did!

There was an earthquake shock throughout the eastern part of the country Saturday night about 9.30. A few people hereabouts felt the tremor, which was very slight in this immediate section.

D. W. HORN, Ph. D.,

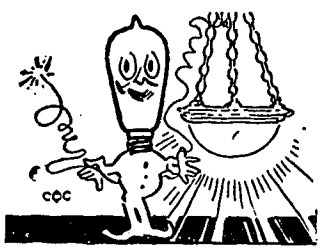

Three children of the family of Mr. and Mrs. Thornton Lewis, 6 Calvert road, Merion, were saved by members of the Cynwyd Fire Company shortly after 10.30 o'clock Monday night when flames from a heater ignited the entire first floor of the extensive dwelling. Three alarms were struck, summoning fire apparatus from Cynwyd, West Manayunk and Ardmore, and the combined efforts of the firemen confined the flames to the first floor of the dwelling.

for 20. That in itself speaks well enough for the boys. When you realize that they are not merely assembling there every Monday night for troop meetings, and on other afternoons for patrol meetings, but also are "carrying on" in everything that Scouting means, advancing themselves individually and giving the town a troop that reflects great credit upon it, you can not doubt that your subscription means much. It is an important thing for your heart and soul to get it in, whether it's a "blank check" for building purposes or a dollar subscription to ease your conscience and to help along a good cause.

There are a number of people who have not repeated their good deeds of last year. There are others whose names are new to the committee. These latter came as pleasant surprises. The delinquents will come in later we are sure. Do what you can but please do it now.

The Reverend M. E. McLinn, pastor of the Lutheran Church, sent in this letter with his subscription; "I like your principles very much and hope you may be able to prosper and carry out grandly every part of your rules and constitution. I wish I could do more and may do another month."

Not content with responding to this appeal the popular pastor hopes to do more another month. That's the sort of spirit that we think all Narberth has under the surface, but it took Mr. McLinn to phrase it.

Lieutenant Commander F. T. Auker expressed himself as follows: "In a very turbulent world, whose view points are so rapidly changing, the one great duty is to insure that the boys get the true viewpoint. The future is safe only if the present men so bring up their boys. The Boy Scout movement is the best and biggest towards that end."

Bill Evans, otherwise W. D. R. Evans, the president of the Narberth Tennis Association, had this to say: "If those boys of yours live up to the Scout Oath we are going to be proud of them later. More power to you."

A particularly pertinent remark was J. F. Cabrey's: "Do you not think we ought to talk about the rights of boys before we talk about the rights of men? If you want good men you want, first, to make good boys!"

And Daniel Leitch, of Merion Title and Trust Company, put it this way: "Who wouldn't support a movement which makes a boy trustworthy, loyal, helpful, courteous, kind, obedient, cheerful, thrifty, brave, clean and reverent? Your committee should have added the Scout Laws to the other matter which you incorporated in the solicitation. When our youngsters subscribe to such ideals, I for one, think that we should all help them along."

Genasco Latite Shingles

Weather All Weather

They are not only weather-safe, fire-safe and economical in cost, but they last for years with little or no cost for repairs. That's because they are made of tough, long-fibred felt sandwiched between with thick layers of Trinidad Lake Asphalt Cement.

Genasco Latite Shingles are locked tightly together—clamped firmly to your roof. No curling—no flapping in the wind. Not only keeping your home warmer in winter, but cooler in summer.

Genasco Latite Shingles Resist Fire

Their slate surface cannot be ignited by sparks or falling embers. Heat from interior fires only tends to soften the shingles and make them adhere to each other, excluding all air and causing them to act as a blanket to smother the flames.

Behind Genasco—the name for asphaltic protective products—stands The Barber Asphalt Company, founder of the modern asphalt street paving industry and the world's largest miner, refiner and distributor of native lake asphalts.
